Ballot Statement

Fall 2006

Lodi is a great community. Working together, we can make it even better.

I was born and raised in Lodi, attended local schools, married, raised my family and own a successful local printing business, Lodi Printing Company.

Growing up in Lodi, I have a special appreciation for the qualities that make our city a unique and desirable place to live. As your Councilmember, I will work to build on Lodi's strengths, our small town character and sense of community.

I strongly support Lodi's efforts to develop the local wine tourist industry. Attracting sales tax dollars from outside our community will help pay for local services and limit raising taxes on local residents.

Increasing costs for water and electricity are a burden on local families and drive new businesses away from Lodi. As a business owner for 25 years, I know what it will take to make Lodi "business friendly" once again.

My wife, Christine and I have been married for 24 years. We have two children, Lauren who is a college student at UOP and Colin, a student at Cal State Sacramento.

Elect Phil Katzakian for Lodi's future. I would be honored to represent you.
